Ontario Invites Public Presentations on Regional Government Review

Special Advisors to Meet with Local Individuals and Organizations

April 1, 2019 11:30 A.M. | Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing

The Ontario government is putting people first by providing another opportunity for local input on how to improve governance, decision-making and service delivery for regional governments and regional municipalities. Our government wants to make sure that the experience of real people is front of mind in every decision we make.

Those who live and work in communities covered by the province's review can register online starting April 3, 2019 to make presentations to the Special Advisors - Michael Fenn and Ken Seiling - who will assess the feedback and provide their advice and recommendations to Minister Clark this summer.

As a municipality in Halton Region, the Town of Halton Hills is included in this consultation.

Three Ways to Provide Input

The public is invited to share their views on the regional government system by:

1. Completing an online survey
2. Sending written submissions by email regionalgovreview@ontario.ca or by mail to Local Government Policy Branch, Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing, 777 Bay Street, 13th floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5G 2E5
3. Make a presentation. Register online between April 3 to April 9 to make a public deputation to the special advisors on May 17 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Halton Region Council Chamber, 1151 Bronte Road in Oakville .

Note: presentations are open to the public.
