Youth Services Network

The Halton Hills Youth Network is a collection of youth serving agencies across the Town of Halton Hills. The purpose of this network is to ensure youth service provision is aligned and most effective in addressing youth needs through identification of service gaps and exploring opportunities to address these gaps and enhance services.

For more information on the Youth Services Network, please email youth@haltonhills.ca.

Halton Hills Youth Voice

NEW

Halton Hills Youth Voice is a committee of youth providing direction to the Youth Services Network. If you're interested in joining call us at 905-873-2601 ext. 2285 or email youth@haltonhills.ca.

Youth Voice Objectives:

- Identify and advocate for local issues that matter to youth
- Recognize and celebrate youth
- Promote positive and meaningful activities for youth in partnership with the community
- Communicate and spread awareness in a youth friendly way
- Work closely with the Youth Services Network to enhance and support youth services in Halton Hills

The Town of Halton Hills is a Platinum Youth Friendly Community through the Play Works Youth Friendly community designation. That means we strive to ensure Youth (ages: 13-19) in Halton Hills have access to a diversity of play, recreation, volunteering, and leadership development.
